An invitation to Baton Rouge's international vendors

We invite you to be part of the International Bazaar at the 11th Annual International Heritage Celebration

Sunday ■ Noon 'til 8:00 ■ September 23, 2007 ■ Baton Rouge River Center

More than 40 countries will showcase their culture, music, clothing, crafts and lifestyles.

We are asking Baton Rouge's finest ethnic stores to join us at the International Bazaar in this celebration of our International Community. This is an excellent opportunity to introduce your store and its wares to thousands of people in one day. The event will be advertised through the media and participating vendors will appear in the event program.

Here's how it works: Each vendor site with one table is only $50. Additional tables are $50 each. We do the advertising for the event and provide a covered area for vendors.

THE CELEBRATION WILL SUPPLY:

- One 4'x8' table & 2 chairs in a covered space (add'l. tables $50 ea.)
- A sign with your shop's name
- If you have other needs such as electricity (110 only) we may be able to help. Let us know of any special needs by September 10.

THE VENDOR WILL SUPPLY:

- Commitment to Participate by September 10
(see contact info at right to return form)
- Merchandise List of what you will be selling. This list needs to be sent to BRCWA by September 10 to meet our program deadline. (see contact info at right to return form) We are creating an International Bazaar; high quality ethnic craft items such as baskets, textiles and decorative objects are most welcome. You may also sell CDs and books relating to your culture. No ready-to-eat food or drink may be sold.
- Table Covering - an attractive cloth or blanket to cover your 4'x8' table.

SUGGESTIONS TO ENHANCE YOUR SITE:

- Vendors may dress in native clothing and decorate tables with flags and pictures. You may also play native music at low volume. We encourage you to hand out flyers, coupons, directions and any information you wish to promote your store.

Please make checks payable to: BRCWA
