

Calling all artists and craftsmen for demonstrations

We invite you to be part of the 13th Annual International Heritage Celebration

Sunday ■ Noon 'til 8:00 ■ April 11, 2010 ■ Outside the BR River Center & on River Road

More than 40 countries will showcase their culture, music, clothing, crafts and lifestyles.

We are hiring area artists and craftsmen to demonstrate their skills to the public.

Whether it is origami, making filé, carving pirogues or building dragon kites, we want festival goers to have the thrill of watching you bring a creation to life.

The preference is for demonstrations reflecting either Louisiana or international cultures.

Here's how it works:

DEMONSTRATIONS: Artists and craftsmen will demonstrate their craft to educate and entertain the festival goers. No goods may be sold at the demonstrations, only at the Market Table. You may hand out your brochures and business cards.

OPTIONAL: DEMONSTRATORS' MARKET TABLE

The staff of IHC will sell items created off-site by the demonstrators. The IHC will take 30% for each item sold, the remaining 70% will go to the demonstrator. All items must be tagged with seller's name and price. You are not obligated to take part in the Demonstrators' Market Table to be a demonstrator.

THE CELEBRATION WILL SUPPLY:

- One table and two chairs.
- A sign with your name and activity.
- If you have other needs such as electricity (110 only) we may be able to help. Access to power is limited.
- Water if needed.

YOU WILL SUPPLY:

- Any materials needed for your demonstration.
- If needed, tent, water hoses and extension cords.
- Your wonderful talents.

Compensation will depend upon type and length of demonstration.

Deadline: Commitment to Participate is due by March 22
